

The middleware gets the license code from the request cookies which would be an HTTPOnly cookie which means JS can't access it (Security reasons)
The middleware then makes a request to Softcode's server for the status of the license.

An Invalid license can be one of the following

1. Expired License
2. Wrong License code
3. Deactivated License